Terms and conditions

The borrower shall submit a condition report at the times of pick-up and return of the artwork. The work(s) should be illustrated in the exhibition catalogue on a full page in colour. Lender asks to receive five copies of the exhibition catalogue free of charge, as well as photographs of the borrowed works and of the exhibition with accompanying user rights. Lender asks to be mentioned in the communication regarding the exhibition. Christen Sveaas' Art Foundation expects borrowers to cover all direct costs connected with the loan, including an administrative fee.

Transportation

The borrower is responsible for organizing the transportation of the artwork, which should be handled by an acknowledged fine art carrier. All transportation costs, including crating and packing materials shall be covered by the borrower. Transportation details shall be agreed between the borrower and the lender's shipping agent.

Governing law and jurisdiction

Norwegian law applies. The terms and conditions of the agreement cannot be transferred to a third party. The place of jurisdiction is Oslo, Norway. The agreement exists in two versions and is only valid with the signature of both parties.
